CHAPTER TWO

James & Margaret

Where my story began and God's hand before I was born.

Jeremiah 1:5

Loretta "Lolo" Hall

Welcome

Hello, and welcome.

Before you read another word, take a breath and invite God into this moment with you. This chapter - "James & Margaret" - is not just something to read; it is a place to meet Him.

Come with an open heart. Let Him speak to the very thing you are carrying today.

With love and faith,

Lolo

Key Scripture

"Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations."

Jeremiah 1:5

Why this scripture matters: This is the promise beneath "James & Margaret." Let it anchor you as you read - where my story began and God's hand before I was born.

Chapter Story - My Testimony

Every testimony has a beginning, and mine began long before I understood God's purpose for my life.

Before I ever knew the battles I would face, before the surgeries, the losses, the tears, and the victories, God already knew my name. He knew every step I would take and every storm I would survive. Nothing in my life has ever surprised Him.

When I look back to where my story began, I don't simply see people or places - I see the hand of God. I see His protection even when I didn't recognize it. I see His mercy covering me through seasons that could have destroyed me. I see His faithfulness carrying me when I wasn't strong enough to carry myself.

There were chapters of my life I didn't understand while I was living them. Some questions remained unanswered for years. Yet with time, I realized that God was writing a story far greater than the one I could see.

Today, I stand as living proof that God finishes what He starts. My beginning may have looked ordinary, and my journey has certainly included pain, but His purpose has been extraordinary.

If God has been faithful from the beginning of my story, He will be faithful in yours as well. Your beginning does not determine your destiny. God's purpose does.

With love and faith,

Reflection

- What is God saying to me?

- What fear do I need to release?

- What promise do I need to believe?

- What step of faith am I being asked to take?

Prayer

Father, thank You that You saw me before anyone else did. Thank You for the hands and prayers that carried my beginning. Redeem my roots, heal my family line, and let the story You started in me be finished for Your glory. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Declaration

"I declare I was known by God before I was born."

"I declare my roots are redeemed."

"I declare purpose was written into my beginning."

"I declare my family line is blessed."

"I declare God finishes what He starts."

Action Steps

- Read Jeremiah 1:5 out loud every morning this week.
- Pray for someone walking through a similar season.
- Journal what "James & Margaret" stirs in your heart.
