CHAPTER FIFTEEN

Peace in the Storm

Finding Jesus in difficult seasons.

Mark 4:39

Loretta "Lolo" Hall

Welcome

Hello, and welcome.

Before you read another word, take a breath and invite God into this moment with you. This chapter - "Peace in the Storm" - is not just something to read; it is a place to meet Him.

Come with an open heart. Let Him speak to the very thing you are carrying today.

With love and faith,

Lolo

Key Scripture

"And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm."

Mark 4:39

Why this scripture matters: This is the promise beneath "Peace in the Storm." Let it anchor you as you read - finding Jesus in difficult seasons.

Chapter Story - My Testimony

Storms came, but Jesus remained in the boat with me. His presence gave me peace even before circumstances changed.

With love and faith,

Reflection

- What is God saying to me?

- What fear do I need to release?

- What promise do I need to believe?

- What step of faith am I being asked to take?

Prayer

Father, speak peace over my storm. Quiet the winds in my mind and the waves in my heart. Let the calm of Your presence rule over every difficult season. Peace, be still. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Declaration

"I declare peace in my storm."

"I declare Jesus is in my boat."

"I declare the winds obey His voice."

"I declare a great calm rests on me."

"I declare fear does not rule me."

Action Steps

- Read Mark 4:39 out loud every morning this week.
- Pray for someone walking through a similar season.
- Journal what "Peace in the Storm" stirs in your heart.
- Worship for 15 minutes with open hands.
- Take one step of faith this week.
